Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

I am sending you a picture which I had made from the picture which Lt. Meadows sent me from Oflag 64. It is different from any of the pictures which you sent me, so I thought you might like to have one. I have written the names on the back of the picture.

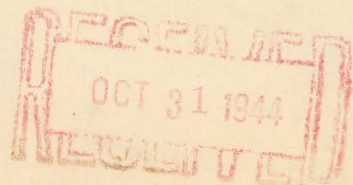

I read the article in today's Fort Worth Star-Telegram about Col. Thomas D. Drake. I was glad to get further information about the camp. From their pictures all the boys look well, but I do hope they won't have to stay there all winter again.

Edward's Mother received a card this week which was written Aug. 17. That is the latest news either of us have had from him. He wrote very cheerfully, and said he hoped he would soon be home.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Edward G. Batte
