My

Mr. A. G. Carter
Ft. Worth, Texas

My dear Mr. Carter.

I understand your son Amos Jr. is at Oflag 64 with my son 1st Lt Bill Burghardt, the Ski Coach of U. of Montana + Mt. Rainier.

Did your newspaper by any chance print the
"SPORTS TRAIL" by WHITNEY MARTIN of Associated Press on April 17, 1944, or
"The SPORTS PARADE" by JACK
CUDDY of UNITED PRESS on MAR.
25, 1944? If so, could I purchase 3 or 4 back copies?

If not, do you know which nearby newspapers did print either or both? I'm very anxious to obtain a copy
as it contains quite a bit about my lad who was appointed Sports Officer of Oflag 64 Germany.
MENTION OF STUD BEASLEY (TEXAS CHRISTIAN UNIV.)
He is ^(BORN) one of the characters in the book "Road to TUNIS"
by David Rame, a factual story of the African Campaign.
The book was dedicated to Bill's Co. C. 701 Tank Destroyer Bde - known also as
"MONTANA BILL" is also a well

IT ALSO CONTAINS

Known Dude Rancher in the Northwest. When next you write Junior, would you like to tell him we've corresponded.

Here in NY I've received mail from all over USA because of news items about my lad on the battlefield, sports, and radio broadcasts.
He's typical newspaper feature writer "meat" and many have written his Horatio Alger-like life story.

Will you let me hear from you & tell me something about Junior, too?

Sincerely,
W H Burghardt

No Record -

Can you give me anything on this -

Mrs. Deakins:

This "Sports Trail" is carried occasionally. This particular one was not. However, if the father will address Whitney Margin, Associated Press, 50 Rockefeller Center, New York, he can obtain the names of the nearest AP morning paper to the father's home and secure copies from that paper. The "Sports Parade" is not carried by the UP papers in this section.
