Mr. W. H. Burghardt,
8402 - 89 Avenue,
Woodhaven 21, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Burghardt:

Your letter of recent date has been received during Mr. Carter's absence from the city, and in reply will say that the "Sports Trail" is carried occasionally; however, the one you refer to was not used and I have learned that if you will write Whitney Martin, Associated Press, 50 Rockefeller Center, New York, he will be able to give you the nearest Associated Press morning paper that carries this feature regularly.

Mr. Carter's son has been a prisoner of war in Germany for 18 months and interned at Oflag 64 about a year.

Your letter will be brought to Mr. Carter's attention when he returns.

Yours very truly,

Secy. to A. G. Carter.
