

NEW YORK
Journal and American
AN AMERICAN PAPER FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Daily and Sunday
210 SOUTH STREET, NEW YORK 15, N. Y.

February 28, 1944.

PERSONAL

Miss Katrine Deakins,
Secretary to Mr. Amon Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Miss Deakins:

Do you feel you could do something for me?

Tell me whether it is possible to send anything to Mr. Amon Carter's son, and if so what is the mechanism and the address?

Mr. Carter has been so outstandingly generous to so many of us that, last night, thinking about it, I got the idea that, if it were permissible, I would like to send along something and, having introduced myself by letter, write an occasional word.

I shall be in Chicago, c/o the Chicago Herald-American, for your reply, and if it is permissible, perhaps, as you have seen his letters, you would have some suggestions of what is best - whether it be food, clothing, sweets or whatever.

I thought also that probably from his Father and from his friends, the boy would be pretty well deluged, and if that were so I would like to send along something for some boy over there so that Amon, Jr. might bestow a kindness as his Father has done a million times.

I think that you will feel free to respect my request that nothing be said to the father. I would like to do this and then he and I can talk about it at some future time.

Sincerely yours,

T. J. White

TJWhite
lmn

