Mr. Amon G. Carter,
City.

Dear Mr. Carter:

I have read in the afternoon paper the distressing report that your son is reported missing in North Africa. Having passed through a somewhat similar experience in the other World War, I thoroughly understand the anxiety that must be yours.

It is not a time to multiply words; but I could not resist the urge to drop you this line, assuring you of my tenderest sympathy and earnest prayer for you in this trying hour.

Cordially yours,

Jeff B. Ray
