My dear friend Amos Carter:
Here on business for the WTCC, Tonight, at dinner, I read the story that your dear boy is listed among the missing in the African AEF. I have hurried to my room to drop you a brief message of sympathy and affection.

Keep your chin up — as I know you typically will! Note Secretary Stimson's statement, that of over more than 2100 casualties from the Rommel push, 2007 are only missing and may get back to our lives. In the law of averages holds, Amen's chance of sobety is 40 to 1. My confident guess is, he is a prisoner of the Nazis, then which there could be many things worse. I know you are rightly proud of that fine boy, as I am of my 2 soldier boys: sons-in-law, one a major and the other a 1st Lieutenant, both of whom are now poised for overseas departure - ready and eager.

I send you not only my affectionate regards, but the avowal of my very great admiration for a most useful American and an honest-to-God newsman.

Faithfully yours,

Max Bentley

WTCC, Airlene
