

March 11, 1943

Dear Mr. Carter:

Only a few hours ago, I heard from Mr. Honea and others in our office that your boy had been reported missing in action.

While words have little value in such a situation, I do want you to know that I am hoping - and praying - that he may be alive and ultimately returned to you.

Sincerely,
James McBride

