NEW YORK, N. Y.

LEWIS H. BROWN
PRESIDENT

March 12, 1943.

My dear Mr. Carter:

I note in today's paper that your son, Second Lieutenant Amon G. Carter, Jr. is reported missing in action.

This is just to say that I hope from the bottom of my heart that it will not belong before you have news of this brave officer.

There have been so many cases of missing men returning to their posts that I feel you can have much hope.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Lewis H. Brown". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping tail that extends to the right.

Mr. Amon G. Carter
