Dear Amon:

My heart goes out to you in understanding sympathy over the tragic message concerning your boy.

Whereas, no expression can alleviate the suffering that we, who have borne such loss, know and understand so poignantly, yet, we do glean some modicum of comfort in the manifest regard and solicitude of friends, given in such spirit and sentiment, that we better realize our close kinship in such an inseparable loss.

All I can say, dear friend, is, may our Heavenly Father keep you and yours in his love and fill your lives full of His power to bless others.

Your friend,

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
c/o Fort Worth Star Telegram,
