My dear Amon:

I have just read the dispatch about Amon, Jr., and I hasten to express the sincere hope that you will have good news from him shortly. I am sure he will turn up in fine shape.

If you head in this direction, be sure and let me know. I'd like so much to see you in New Orleans.

Every good wish and warmest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

JAMES G. STAHLMAN,
Commander, U.S.N.R.
