Dearest, dear -

The utter inadequacy of words is brought home to us every time but never so much as at a time like the present.

Olive and I feel so helpless — where we want to help so much.

The one consolation is that for every year you have been the same

who got things done —
So if anything can be done or any information is available you are the one person who can do any thing about it.

Meanwhile our hearts
are with you and with thee every moment.

Truly your goodness
such as his best triumph over evil.

All my love
