

Mar. 13 -

C. E. MITCHELL
14 WALL STREET
NEW YORK

Dear Amos -

I read that you have lost a son who was fighting for his country on the Tunisian battle front. How great a glory! Yet how great a loss! I want you to know Amos that my heart goes out to you and Mrs. Carter in a wave of sympathy tempered only by a glow of pride.

Sincerely
Charles

