My dear Amos, -

I read in the Star Telegram yesterday that Amos, Junior, was missing in action on the Tunisia front in Africa. I sincerely hope you will receive an early report through Geneva that he is a prisoner and not wounded.

My son came through here last month from Austin to report to the Air Force for training as a pilot. I thought I had reasonable courage but the night he left me, I dare not confess my lack of control after he was out of my sight.

If the war lasts two years,
I think his chances of survival are rather remote, and he is the last person I have very close to my heart.

I trust and hope that Amos, Junior, is alive and in good health.

Sincerely yours,
Dexter G. Curlock
