Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Amon:

I was in Washington last week and happened into Fritz Lanham's office just as he had learned that Amon, Jr. had been reported missing in action. I told Fritz that I was going straight to town and telegraph you, but he asked that I not do so until you had received the information from the proper officials.

I wanted to tell you that if the prayers of a man like me could be answered they will be that Amon, Jr. has not been killed but is a prisoner of war (bad as that might be), and that he will come back to you as whole and fine as he was when you saw him last.

Sincerely your friend,

JEF:hm
