COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

WASHINGTON, D. C.

FRANK CONNELL, CLERK

My Dear Arnon

My attention just this minute has been called to a stage in the Dally news to the effect that Arnon is missing in Africa.

This comes mighty close to me.

I might not be able to figure out just why I feel so keenly a great personal loss.

Ours has been an unusual sort of friendship. It has stood all the strains of conflicting community interest and has not been affected by the attitude of others. It is this distrust of a real friend which deeply distresses me. Yours always Hallen
