

23 WALL STREET

March 18, 1943

Dear Mr. Carter:

In the midst of my own lesser preoccupations, I must take time to write you of the sorrow with which I read the dispatch to the effect that your son and namesake was missing. I still hope that there may come some good news of him, but meanwhile wish you to know of my regard and warm sympathy.

Sincerely yours,

Amon G. Carter, Esq.,
Fort Worth,
Texas.
