Dear Mr. Carter:

I know how the news of aman's being missing must have made you feel. Aman is the finest boy that I have ever known and his friendship is deeper in my heart than I can ever express.

I just can't imagine anything bad ever happening to him and I know that he is safe. He just has to be. Until I hear some more about him I will pray every night for his safety.

Faithfully yours,

Pat Reardon
