

DAVID RICHARD
GENERAL

Dear Annon,

Ever since reading about Annon Jr. in the paper I have wanted to write to you as I have thought of you so often. I think what you are going through now must be about the most difficult thing a person could be asked to endure - the uncertainty and not knowing anything, must be harder to bear than anyone knows.

You know how very fond I have always been of Annon Jr. and,

Bless his heart, somewhere, somehow,
We all hope and pray for his safety,
and well being.

There isn't much a person can say at a time like this to lighten the heartbreak and anxiety but I want you to know I am thinking of you as well as that fine boy of yours.
He is in my prayers.

I wanted to write to you sooner but am just now up and around recovering from some dastardly germ that laid me low for days.

With love,

Betty
