Dear Mr. North:

More than ten days have already elapsed since yours of the 9th inclosing that comment on Phil. Need I tell you how enthusiastically I share the sentiments expressed!

What a singular destiny brings us soon after that pleasant Sunday with you the news of the disappearance of Amon Carter, Jr. It's uncanny. I have been minded ever since to tell you--and perhaps through you Mr. Carter--how deeply I feel for him, but still retain the hope that his son will be found.

Sunday week was a "Red Letter" day. I hope to get over soon to express my thanks in person. Meanwhile, most cordial remembrances to Mrs. North, Miss Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Record.

Sincerely yours,

ROYDEN WILLIAMSON
Colonel, GSC
