

2744 FIFTH AVENUE

FORT WORTH

Dear Mr. Carter,

Mother has asked me to tell you that she is thinking continually of Amen. We have always heard the finest things about him. He is so outstanding, and I know how wrong it seems for him to have to undergo this unhappy experience. I write in this way, because I cannot think in any vein except that Anna is a prisoner of the Italians.

We shall all be praying for good
news of him before
too long.

You were more than kind to send Mother the beautiful white egales in
the midst of your trouble, and she has helped me
write this note

To try to tell you how deeply the entire family is concerned
with you.

Most sincerely,
Lucy Ryan Partridge
