

Monday etc -

Dear Aman:

It just isn't right for me to call you that, but since you asked me to, perhaps I should. Knowing you only a short time, I feel as though I'd known you always, and you've become so dear to me. We have mutual interests and understand each other.

Today I received the address of Lt. Col. Summerall from Mrs. Deakins and so I want to him immediately.

 I do hope he gets it and will reply. No further news, but now they're busily engaged again, and with Patton at the head, I'm confident that our goal will be reached very soon. The results of all this will take a long time to become known, and I'm hoping with you and praying that Amos, Jr. is in the vicinity and can escape his captors.
 A letter from Major Lee (a San Antonio who is Eisenhower's

-3-aide) today stated he'd seen Sidney at Pidi Bouzid and he was fine. That was way back in February, tho'

We must have faith that everything will be well. I really do believe that, too.
How is Ruth - it must be difficult for her to try to study and do good work with additional worries.

My thoughts are even with you, and I'm so sorry I can't be with you in person and help you through these troubled days. I'm anxious about you - please let we hear from you & from Mrs. Deakins & just a note.

You're both very busy; I realize that. Gale came I yourself for Amos. J. is, see.
I know he's all right - he's a man; he'd not be shaken - he's a good boy and with tact, he'll get along fine.
God is good.

Lovingly,

Jane
