PERCY H. JOHNSTON
CHAIRMAN

March 25, 1943.

Dear Amon:

Thank you for sending me the copy of the "Star-Telegram". I am distressed and grieved to observe the notice that your son is missing in action. I hope and pray that it means he has been captured and will later turn up.

My brother-in-law, Colonel M. B. Rogers, is with the Twelfth Fighter Air Force Command in Tunisia. If you think he could be any help in unraveling your son's whereabouts, I should be glad to communicate with him. Colonel Rogers is a man of vast experience, receiving more decorations in World War I than any other man who fought in the American Armies.

My son has been in the Army three years. He is a Captain and is now in the Hawaiian Islands. All the menfolk of my family, except such old, broken-down fellows like myself, have gone to war.

I send you my deepest sympathy and remembrance.

Sincerely yours,

Percy
