

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 26, 1943

Dear Amon:

It is with deepest regret that I learn that your son, Amon Jr., had been reported missing in action in Africa.

There is little that words can do in a time like this, but let us keep the firm hope that he was with the advanced forces where so many boys were captured by the enemy. You have the satisfaction of knowing, however, that he was performing his duty and you will gain great comfort from that knowledge.

Knowing you as I do, I feel that you will not give up hope and that you will carry on doing your part in this great work we have to do.

With deepest concern and with best wishes for the welfare of you and your family, I am,

Very sincerely

Ross T. McIntire.

Mr. Amon Carter
Fort Worth,
Texas.
