Tuesday.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Letter from Sidney today dated March 10th in which he says how terrible he feels about Amos, Jr. and he's hoping and praying with us that we should just sit and wait. As you see, he's very hopeful. And with the good progress that was made recently over there, I'm hoping for good news. I thought I heard Walter Winchell state last Sunday that a group of prisoners got back to New Orleans, but I was had no one verifying that - Mother & Bladdy weren't listening to the program, & so I don't know whether I got it right or not. I want to know how you are - I've been wanting to call but I always disturb you - and I don't know what to
