Mr. Amon Carter,

Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

It was indeed a shock to get the paper regarding your son. I hope by the time you receive this that you will have found that he is safe and well.

It is too bad that things like this had to happen. God knows that if the country had taken your advice in 1932, we would not be in this position. Garner was undoubtedly the outstanding man to have guided the country through such a crisis as this. It is a tragedy that he was not nominated and elected. I don't believe any of these awful things would have happened had he been. Personally, I have done some terrible things in my short career - I have associated with gamblers, prostitutes, and everything else you can think of, but the only real crime that can be written against me on Judgment Day is the fact that I was a delegate to the Democratic Convention in 1932 and '36. There is no way I can deny it, as it is a matter of record.

I know your life has not been any bed of roses, but at least you can always point with pride to your attempt to put a first rate guy in the White House.

Best,

George
George P. Marshall
