March 30th

Dear Mr. Carter.

I thank you so very much for sending me the clippings about Aunty. What wonderful news! I can only guess how you must feel, but know how relieved I would be under similar circumstances.

You will probably hear from Aunty personally, if you haven't already.
A friend of mine's husband is also a prisoner in Germany, and she has heard from him several times.

I have just written Bruce about Aunty because I know he'd want to know. He admired Aunty so very much, and felt very badly about her.

I have had very little news recently which suit surprising right now, but when last heard from Bruce was fine and in good spirits.

Did you meet Capt. Brown when you were with the Battalion? He was D. C. of "A" Coy. He was wounded, disoriented and prostrated in February, only to be taken prisoner while on his way to the base hospital in an ambulance.
Fortunately, his wound wasn't too serious - a leg injury, but they are very anxious about him, because they have had no further news of him; just that a Nazi patrol took the ambulance crew Brown.

Thank you again for sending the clippings. I appreciate it very much.

Sincerely

Elizabeth S. Pirnie
