Dear Amon:

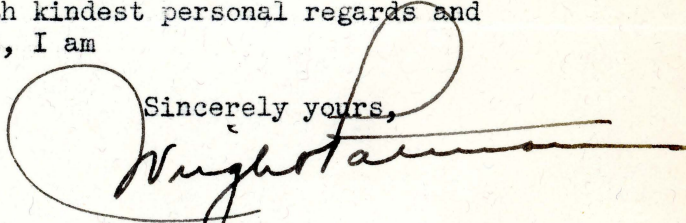

I deeply regret to learn that your son, Lieutenant Amon G. Carter, Jr., a field artillery officer with an armored division in Tunisia, is reported "missing in action" in the North Africa area.

I hope your son is safe and that you will receive word of his safety and security. I deeply sympathize with you and only wish that I could do something that would be of relief to you during such a trying time.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

WP:d
