Sunday.

Amon, dear:

I am enclosing a page from Sidney's letter we received at noon today. I think you probably know Captain Asbury, he's a fine thing that he did, but Sidney has never written - or at least we didn't get it - what Asbury found out. The "old man" is Mr. Guillen - we always refer to him as that. Return the page to me when you're finished with it. I don't know where Asbury went - I can only guess.

Have faith - it takes a long time for news to reach us - you know how long it took the Japs to release their prisoners list - & then it came bit by bit. All our boys are eager to know of Amon, for as you well know - I'm praying for his welfare -

I wrote Sidney today asking about the glasses, camera, and money - as you wanted me to do. I appreciated Mrs. Heekin calling me; I've been so worried and upset with you and her.

Lovingly, Jane (over)

Tuesday A.M. - letter from Barney written March 9th saying -

"Didn't write Amos. Explained somehow there's nothing to write. He got back with a good case of fleas and no information on what I wanted.
Of course, that's good news."

sound so good the past few days. Baby, as I remember it, that's mild.

Little lonesome tonite. Asbury is my tent mate & he's gone - and where I wanted to go. The old man wouldn't let me, so As knew why I wanted to go & volunteered, so I let him. When he returns tomorrow, I'll write that long put off letter to Amon. Hope I won't have any more info than I have now, but I feel that I owed A. C. so much that I would do anything I could to get more information. Hope As makes it OK.

Lt. Simons, who has been with us 6 mos., has a brother in S. A. T. I told him to write his brother to get in touch with you. He's the one we call "Junior" (even the old man does now). Typical Joe College youngster. The little fool tackled a bunch of gerries & he & his driver captured 14 of them a few weeks ago. For that & a few other things I've recommended his promotion.

Your getting all the hot dope from Anne Markee is a joke. Y Some
