

521 East 87 St.
New York City.
April 8, 1943.

Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth.
Texas.

Dear Sir:

Quite some time ago,
I read in the New York papers, that a very dear friend of mine, Lieut Amos G. Carter Jr., was reported missing in action and believed to be a prisoner in the hands of the Nazis.
Before this report, I've through them, I would receive some information about Lieut. Carter's where abouts.

Thanking you graciously for any information you have about Lieut. Carter, as I soon write him words of encouragement, I remain

Yours truly,

Hildegarde Zinn

written Gary continuously at Fort Dix, Northern Ireland and Africa, addressing them to the 91st Armored Field Artillery, A. P. O. 251 7, Postmaster New York, and have always received answers from him saying how glad he was to receive letters from me. I have inquired at the Red Cross about continuing writing him at the prison camps but they weren't able to give me very much assistance.
They advised me to write a Texas paper and perhaps