LAWRENCE, MASSACHUSETTS

April 13th, 1943.

Dear Amon:

It was with deep regret that I just learned about your son.

It would be fallacy for me to try and offer my condolences as I understand how you feel, but you have one thought to cheer you up and that is the fact that he might be taken a prisoner and is alright. With that thought in mind I think you can bear it a little more lightly.

War is a horrible thing and I only hope that it will not last a great many more months.

Believe me when I say my thoughts are with you and I only hope that your boy will come back safely to you!

Sincerely

H. Bradford Lewis.
