PRAISED BY 'LONDON'

LONDON, April 14 (AP). — "The Londoner's Diary," an editorial page feature of Lord Beaver-Brook's Evening Standard pays tribute to Lieut. Amon G. Carter, Jr., son of the publisher of the Fort Worth, Texas, Star-Telegram, who has been missing in the North Africa action area since Feb. 14.

"The Londoner," who is not identified, described Lieut. Carter as "a most likeable young man whom everyone he met here held in high esteem."
