

April 15, 1943

Pat Reardon called from Monroe, La., after reading the report in a Shreveport paper that Amon is a prisoner of war in Germany and was beside himself with joy.