Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

I was pleased to read in the paper this morning where your son Amon, Jr., has been located in a German prison camp and I sincerely trust that he is uninjured and will soon be able to be exchanged for some of our German prisoners.

My brother, Col. Thomas J. Moroney, is attached to General Andrews' staff in London, England. I mention this since if in any way he can be of any assistance to you in securing information or expediting transfer, I know that he would be glad to help you.

Sincerely yours,

James M. Moroney
