Dear Amon:

Vivienne and I read in the late edition last night about your good news, and we want to tell you how glad we are that you received it. I told her, and I think that it probably expresses our feelings, that it was probably the best bad news that anybody ever received. I know that you will be worried about his treatment, but I think that most of the reports concerning the treatment of prisoners are greatly exaggerated, and I feel sure that as soon as this thing is over, Amon, Jr. will be restored to you and yours none the worse for his experience.

With my very best regards, I beg to remain

Yours very truly,

Bob Hanger
