

The Millers Mutual
Fire Insurance Company
Fort Worth, Texas

April 15, 1943

Dear Amon:

I hasten to write how happy my wife and I are that news of your son has at length been received, though all of us will still worry until the exchange of prisoners thru Red Cross is obtained, which we feel sure will be not far off.

I know you are wrapped up in your boy and have been suffering hell, but thank God, you have now heard of him.

Very sincerely yours

Glen Watkes

GW:MBI

