

First Presbyterian Church

507 TAYLOR STREET
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

JAMES K. THOMPSON, D. D., MINISTER

April 15, 1943.

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Mr. Carter:

Words do not come easy in which to express my very great joy at the wonderful news you have just received with regard to Amon Jr.

All of Fort Worth, much of Texas and the country at large share in no inconsiderable measure your present happiness, that which we have all hoped and prayed might be, and that he is still alive.

Now, when this frightful war is over, and he is home again, and working with his dad in the finer and bigger things of life, the pinnacle of satisfaction will almost have been attained.

In the meantime, as always, my heartfelt desire and prayer is for your wellbeing, and that there may come to you an enduring peace through the riches of His grace.

Sincerely Yours,

