

709 E. Baltimore
Fort Worth, Texas.
April 15th, 1943.

Mr. Amon G. Carter.
City.

Dear Mr. Carter:

I was mighty glad to hear that your son
Lt. Amon Carter Jr., is safe.

At least this is some consolation after the agony of being "missing in action". And, while there is life, there is HOPE.

I have an only son in service myself, and only a father can possibly know how we feel in a case where jeopardy enters their life.

It is my sincerest hope that your son shall be delivered to you hale and hearty, and my prayers will be concentrated upon this hope.

Cordially,

J. A. Hybarger.
J.A. Hybarger.

