Other Personnel Changes Here Announced

Rea Is American Airlines FW Mgr.

Tull G. Rea, American Airlines Fort Worth manager since August, 1961, has been promoted to district manager of airport services for the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Mr. Rea's promotion was announced today along with a number of other changes by Warren G. Woodward, vice president of the Southwest for American Airlines.

His new area of responsibility includes both Dallas' Love Field and Greater Southwest International Airport.

AT THE same time Mr. Woodward announced that R. E. Taylor, supervisor of airport services at GSIA, has been elevated to Fort Worth manager of airport services and B. S. Gibson, a veteran in the airline sales field, has been named district manager passenger sales-Dallas/Fort Worth.

Other staff appointments include:

Ronald L. Cleek, Fort Worth district sales manager since February, 1963, appointed manager of freight sales for Dallas and Fort Worth.

Terrell C. Freeman, former sales representative for American in Washington, D. C., appointed Fort Worth district sales manager.

Also reporting to Mr. Woodward will be Neil W. Byl, manager of personnel, and J. B. Marryat, Southern director of public relations.

MR. REA, a native of Bell

Falls, Tex., is a veteran of 38 years with the company. He grew up with commercial aviation in Texas and has served in Dallas, Fort Worth, Detroit, Chicago and Washington, plus Mexico. He supervised establishment of the company's facilities at Fort Worth's GSIA.

Mr. Taylor, a native of Clarksburg, Va., joined American Airlines as an operations agent in Washington, D. C., in 1946, after serving with the Air Corps in the South Pacific in World War II.

Mr. Gibson, a native of Teague, joined American in May, 1935, in St. Louis after learning about traffic while working for the M-K-T Railroad. He became Dallas district sales manager in 1945.

MR. CLEEK, a native of Virginia, attended Randolph Macon College and after serving with the Air Force in World War II, joined American as a ticket agent in Richmond, Va., in 1951.

Mr. Freeman, who served with the infantry in Europe during World War II, came to American as a reservations sales agent in Washington in 1946. He was named sales representative in 1958.

The new Fort Worth district sales manager is a native of Birmingham, Ala., and attended high school in Washington and Hyattsville, Md., and the University of Maryland.

Generals To Attend Luncheon

Two one-star generals will be present Friday when the 512th Military Airlift Wing holds its annual "thank you" luncheon for Fort Worth-Dallas area business firms.

The "thank you" is being given for the firms' co-operation with the Air Force Reserve programs — letting their employes take extended days off to fly cargo missions all over the United States and often to Vietnam.

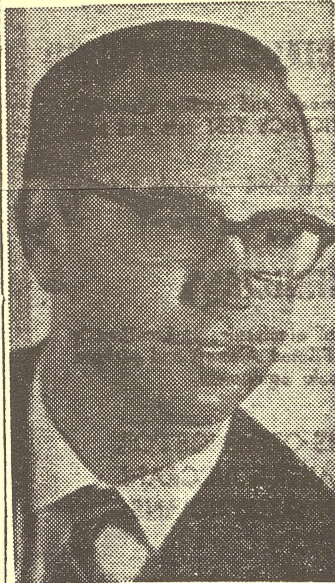

Col. Stanley V. Rush, commander of the 512th MAW, headquartered at Carswell Air Force Base, will host the luncheon at Ridglea Country Club. It'll be the third consecutive year the luncheon has been given.

Brig. Gen. C. E. Heidingsfelder Jr., deputy commander of the 4th Air Force Reserve Region, and Brig. Gen. John W. Hoff, commander of the 434th Troop Carrier Wing at Bakalar Air Force Base, Ind., will be special guests of honor at the luncheon.

Destructive Pest

In 1954, a new pest called the alfalfa aphid arrived in California. Within one year it had inflicted a loss of $35 million in crop damage and cost of control according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.
