

March 21, 1951

Mr. James A. Jackson
Room 1748
120 Broadway
New York, New York

Dear Jim:

It is a real pleasure to me personally to advise you that you were elected a director of American Airlines, Inc. at the meeting of the directors held today.

Our meetings are held monthly on the third Wednesday at 10 a.m. We will look forward to seeing you again at the meeting of April 18 to be in the regular room at the Ritz-Carlton.

Sincerely yours,

C. W. Jacob
Vice President

CWJ:KC

March 21, 1951

Mr. Carter:

Mr. Kemp looked for you before leaving today and asked me personally to tell you that he was most sorry that he was unable to stay and welcome Jim Jackson. He asked me to pass that same message on to Jim, and I have done so.

C. W. Jacob