Dear Amon:

This morning I was delighted to have a call from Mr. Brad Gibson and Mr. M. D. Miller of the American Air Lines. They opened an account with us for $25,000 and stated that it will be inactive and probably will stay here pending the purchase of new equipment which will be delivered sometime down the line.

We very much appreciate your help in getting this business for us. I am sure that without it, this thing would not have come about.

Sincerely yours,

Chairman of the Board
