Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

On a brief trip to Dallas yesterday, I spoke at a luncheon and afterward had an opportunity to spend two hours at the Greater Fort Worth International Airport looking over the progress that has been made toward its completion.

It is coming along beautifully and is going to open the eyes of thousands of passengers who come from such cities as Chicago, Philadelphia, and New York.

Sorry that I did not get an opportunity to talk with you while in Texas.

Sincerely,

Walter H. Johnson, Jr.
