Dear Mrs. Deakins:

In connection with the Personnel Security Questionnaire which you filled out for Mr. Carter and forwarded to us, the Air Force has indicated that they need more complete addresses than were given under Item 28 for Mr. Carter's sister and half-brothers.

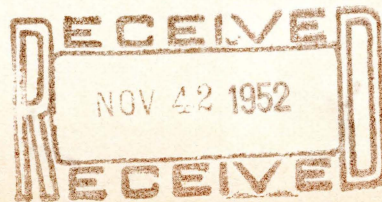

We would, therefore, appreciate your providing us with a street address for Mrs. Addie Carter Brooks and Messrs. Roy E., Ralph and Grady Carter, which we will then include on the Questionnaire. If the town is so small that a street address is not necessary to locate any of the above, the Air Force has requested that we indicate "no street address needed".

Your promptness in complying with our original request for completion of Mr. Carter's Questionnaire was greatly appreciated and I am sorry to have to bother you with this additional detail. However, I hope that inclusion of the above address information will make the Questionnaire entirely satisfactory to the Air Force and that this will be the last time we will require your kind assistance and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

A. A. Paradis

Mr. A. A. Paradis
Assistant Secretary
American Airlines

New York 17, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Paradis:

In reply to your letter of November 21 in connection with the Personnel Security Questionnaire in behalf of Mr. Carter, please advise the Air Force that Mrs. Addie Brooks' address is 911 West 35th Street, Covington, Kentucky; Roy Carter's address is P. O. Box 931, Kermit, Texas; and we do not know the addresses of Ralph and Grady Carter other than have already been given you. These are half brothers of Mr. Carter's and during the writer's more than thirty years in this office Mr. Carter has not seen them and for how much longer prior to that time I have no knowledge.

Trusting this gives you the desired information, and with best wishes,

Sincerely,

Secretary to A. G. Carter
