Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Club,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

Several times I have discussed with you the advisability of paying the City of Fort Worth a reasonable amount each month for the utilization which we make of the airport. While I do not remember that you have been against the proposal, it always seems that we arrive at no conclusion which permits us to get started.

We have a rental and rental amortization agreement partially completed with the City. Raymond Buck is familiar with it and I am sending him copy of this note, with the request that he discuss it with you; this for the reason that you have said several times that you wanted to know first about any modification of our existing airport arrangement at Fort Worth.

Sincerely yours,
