POST CARD

CORRESPONDENCE

ADDRESS

Dear Folks,

Tonight is open port, and this morning I planned to stay at home and write some letters but I was so tired that this one card is all that I could manage. I am tired. Flying is work.
There is nothing new anyway,
except that I want to late home.
I guess by this time both of you are well so next write me that Eddie has a ring room or something. I'll write a letter soon.

Love,
Joe
