

GREENVILLE ARMY
FLYING SCHOOL
GREENVILLE, MISS.

Sat.
I don't know the date.

Dear Folke,

Well it's all over now but getting on the train. This we will do at some ungodly hour in the morning. I should have written sooner but I didn't know the date of shipment and there was nothing else to tell as we have been doing nothing but sleeping and tying up loose ends, filling out forms, attending lectures etc. We have been going to town every night, but there is still nothing to tell about that. As you already knew, my next post will be George Field. I have found out that George Field is near the thriving ~~metropolis~~ metropolis of ~~Lawrenceville~~ Lawrenceville, Ill. a town of some 6,000 citizens as the rumors go.

I guess Papa has told you all about our visit, but let me add my two cents
and say that I really got a kick out of it.
I only wish that it hadn't been so short and that you could have been with him. Mama.
However you and Amy went out with Papa
so we can't complain too much about that.
Whatever Papa tells you about those six dominoe games, don't believe it.

Oh yes, Mama, don't change your plans
too drastically about coming up and watching me graduate. ~~A~~ A lot of things have to be taken into consideration before it is wise to say yea or nay. We'll discuss that later.
We ~~had~~ have to get our room in pre-move-out inspection order now so I'll sign off until my new home is George Field. I'll write or call at the earliest opportunity.

Love,
Joe
