Dear Folks,

I don't know whether to mark this day as a pleasant Easter Sunday, or as a pleasant April Fools Day. Anyhow it has been rather nice. Tom, Bob, and I got up at 6:00 so we could attend the sunrise services. Of course, the sun didn't rise, due to a slight cloud cover but it was pretty nice anyway. The service was held outside on the athletic field and what do you know, it didn't rain. I don't remember whether I told you about it or not but last Easter, while I was in Greenville, Minn., I got up, and got down to sunrise services just as the morning was breaking up. Did a little better this year and was five minutes ahead of time.

As for my well being, I'm still healthy, mostly due to pay day yesterday, and getting wiser every day. Still got a long way to go on that last score.

Everyone's letters are coming through great, but the packages ain't doing so good. Maybe you had better send another box of cookies. Love's love, Les
