Dear Folks,

I'm a weary child to night so this will just be a short line to let you know that all is still well. When I got in this afternoon I had a couple of very welcome letters waiting for me. One was a joint one written by both Mama and Papa and addressed to this address. It was dated Feb 6, not too bad. The other was from Jack Cameron, written from somewhere in Germany. He had just returned from a pass to Bay Pansé and seemed in the best of spirits. There are some pigeons connected with his unit and he told me about them.

The weather around here is continuing to be pretty good all of which suits me just fine. I haven't seen the first robin yet but expect to any day now. When and if you get time will you send me some vasoline hair oil and some Coskin. That's all for tonight.

Love,
Joe
