Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth Star Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

Attached is a copy of a local bulletin which I have distributed today to key supervisory people in Fort Worth and Dallas. I believe you have already had a note from Mr. Pace, and since he has told me that he worked for the Star Telegram along about 1925, you may remember him.

I interviewed Pace when I was in New York recently, and he looks like a mighty good man to me. He will probably arrive here on September 2 or 3, and as soon thereafter as possible, I want to bring him over to meet you. I will phone you in advance to see what time will be convenient.

When I saw C. R. in New York on the 16th he told me he had had a talk with Pace and felt that our selection was a good one and that Pace would make us a good man.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

Melvin D. Miller
