

November 19, 1947

American Airlines, Inc.,
100 East 42nd Street,
New York City, N.Y.

Gentlemen:

Since everyone should conserve paper and particularly those in the newspaper business, I would like to call your attention to the fact that both the writer and Mr. Carter, my boss, receive two and three American Airlines system schedules each time they are issued and while each of us is tremendously in the American Airlines and refer to the schedules often, perhaps we could get along with one copy each. Therefore, will you check your list and take all off but one each. I think you have Mr. Carter as Amon G. Carter and A. G. Carter and care Fort Worth Star-Telegram as well as Carter Publications, Inc., (one and the same). You have the writer as Katrine Deakins, Carter Publications, Inc., Fort Worth, Texas, which is correct and then as the attached label indicates and someother way which I threw in the waste basket before I had the bright idea of asking you to correct your list and save the paper.

Thanks so much.

Secretary to A. G. Carter.