W. B. HAMILTON
PRESIDENT

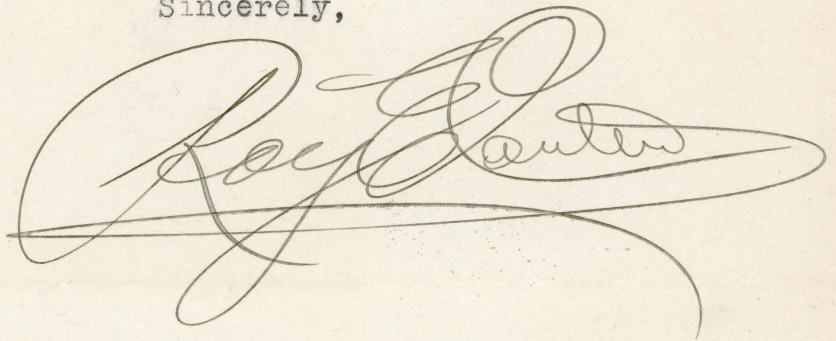

Nov. 28th, 1925.

Dear Amon:--

I am enclosing a clipping from the local morning paper, which will give you some idea of the "disgrace" I am having to undergo here today. You may have already seen this, but thought I would pass it on to you.

Personally of course, I am more or less of the opinion that accidents do not happen, but are caused and I am wondering if such was not possibly the case with this one, but anyway everyone here "Glories in your spunk." Some of them said they were glad there was some one else besides Moody who was not bossed by Jim.

Sincerely,
